MILL WORKERS VOTE TO REJECT OFFER

Five Per Cent Dividend They Do Not Want—Sentiment in Favor of Strike.

Fall River, Mass., June 21.—Without a dissenting voice, the textile workers of this city last night refused to accept the offer of the cotton manufacturers, made to the Textile council after the latter body had demanded for the operators a restoration of wages to the scale in force prior to July 25, 1904, when the great Fall River strike was inaugurated.

The offer of the Manufacturers' association was a guarantee of a weekly dividend to each employee of at least 5 per cent of the amount of his wages. The Textile council referred this offer back to the individual unions for their action upon it.

All of the five unions in the Textile council held meetings last night. At every meeting there was a heavy attendance and in each case the business was transacted quickly. When the vote was taken it was decided unanimously by every union to reject the offer of the Manufacturers' association. It was also voted to instruct the delegates to the Textile council to adhere to their demands for a restoration of wages to the scale in operation previous to the strike of 1904.

A RANDOLPH MYSTERY.

Stranger Leaves Two Children and Disappears.

Randolph, June 21.—A stranger arrived yesterday afternoon on the 2:36 train, accompanied by two small children, a two-year-old boy and a baby girl. The stranger left the station with a child on each arm and went straight to the home of Mrs. Ella Smalley, where, with very little ceremony, he left the children and disappeared. Mrs. Smalley was not pleased with the charge imposed upon her and immediately made complaint to Sheriff J. F. Lamson, who at once set out to find the man who left the children, but the stranger has not been located. The children are grandchildren of Mrs. Smalley, belonging to her son, Roy Smalley, and his wife. The man who left the children with Mrs. Smalley is supposed to be Mrs. Smalley, Jr.'s stepfather, but his residence is not known. A short time ago Mrs. Smalley, with her two children, came to Randolph in search of her husband, Roy Smalley, who had deserted his family a few months before, but she could get no information as to his whereabouts and left town the following day. When in Randolph, Mrs. Smalley did not visit her mother-in-law, but made her headquarters at the Randolph Inn.

RUNAWAY CAR KILLS ENGINEER

Dashing Down the Grade, the Runaway Struck an Engine at East Clarendon.

Rutland, June 21.—A wreck which resulted in the killing of Engineer Harry S. Davis of this city and the narrow escape of a whole trainload of passengers, occurred at the East Clarendon station on the Rutland railroad yesterday afternoon, when the flyer, leaving this city at two o'clock, was struck by a runaway freight car, which was coming down the mountain at a terrible rate of speed.

The box car, which was loaded with four-foot pulp wood, broke loose at East Wallingford, six miles south of East Clarendon, and started down the sharp incline.

When the car passed Cuttingsville, three miles south of East Clarendon, the operator at the former place notified the East Clarendon operator that it was coming and to put the flyer on a siding. This the operator tried to do, and just as the flyer came to a standstill the wild car came around a sharp curve, colliding with the engine with terrific force.

Engineer Davis jumped from the right side of the engine and was caught under a pile of pulp wood and timber at the bottom of a 30-foot embankment. He was killed almost instantly.

Fireman George Ryan jumped from the left side, and was not injured. The forward part of the engine was badly damaged, and the cab was demolished. None of the passengers were injured.

Mr. Davis leaves a widow and eight children.

MAINE DEMOCRATS NOMINATE DAVIS

Much More Enthusiasm Than Usual—The Candidate Declares That Party Lines Will Not Count.

Bangor, Me., June 21.—Hon. Cyrus W. Davis, twice mayor of Waterville, was nominated yesterday for the second time by the Democrats of Maine as their candidate for governor. The convention was one of the largest held by the party in years, 911 out of a possible 1165 delegates being present, and there was much more enthusiasm than is usually the case. The nomination was by acclamation. Mr. Davis was the only candidate, and he was given a rousing welcome as he entered the hall.

In his speech of acceptance Mr. Davis said that for 20 years the Democratic party in Maine had been one of protest merely, but that a change had come, the farmers of the state were in arms against the rings of Republican officeholders, which had been exploiting them, and that in the coming contest party lines will not count.

The platform demands an equalization of taxation burdens, the immediate repeal of the Sturgis law, denounces the enforcement of the prohibitory law as a farce and asks its re-submission to the people.

Carr of this city, is hale and hearty and a puzzle to the doctors today, after having lived two and a half weeks with a breast pin open in his throat. The child swallowed the pin while toying with it, but showed no bad effects from it. Physicians predicted immediate trouble unless the pin passed through the natural channels, but when days went by and no inflammation was noticed, although the pin still remained in the child's body, the medical men were nonplussed. Yesterday while the boy was eating some toast he commenced suddenly to choke and soon coughed up the pin, a piece of the toast being caught on the sharp point.

EATON SIGNS WITH INTERCITY

Popular Catcher of Last Summer Arrives

READY TO BEGIN WORK

Left Manchester, N. H., For Northern League and Will Be in the Game With Beverly, Mass., This Afternoon.

The star catcher of the Intercity ball team and the Northern league last summer, George Eaton, has jumped from Manchester, N. H., where he has been playing in the New England league, and has landed in this city, ready to put on a uniform this afternoon. Eaton arrived last night, and his coming will settle all doubts as the backstopping of the Champions this season. With Eaton back of the batter, there will be a strong pivot for the remainder of the team. He is a very popular player, and the enthusiasts will all be glad to welcome him. All the season thus far he has been playing great ball for Manchester, and is rated as one of the best players in the New England league.

"Tom" Stankard, who has been playing second base with Springfield, Mass., in the Connecticut league, is expected to arrive in Barre tonight and don the local uniform, according to his arrangement with Manager Ulise earlier in the season. "Bobby Burns" Otergelt is the last one of the Champions to report and he probably will not begin his work until the team goes to Ottawa, on June 26. The combination is said to be a fast one, and ought to put up a strong argument for the pennant this
